Helping schools buy better since 1974...

Whether it's office supplies, curriculum products, computers and furniture or even services like electricity and insurance, we will work with you to get the best solutions around.

Waltham Forest is proud to support YPO - having joined forces with over 40 other member organisations from across the UK - securing greater savings from its procurement activities and enhancing the wealth of products and services available to their procurement service subscribers.

Working together, we can help schools and academies - who have the difficult job of making the most of extremely tight budgets with the prospect of further funding cuts - make their money go even further.

As a leading public sector procurement organisation with over 40 years' experience, YPO not only has a huge range of products and services at market-leading prices, but most importantly, the expertise to help you find the best solution to suit your needs.

SAVE OVER £40.00
when you buy from YPO
