

Newham RSHE Partnership was one of the twenty training schools who won a grant from the DfE to provide support and training to schools around the new statutory guidance on RSHE.

If your school wasn't able in 2020/21 to engage with the DfE RSHE training programme you can do so from September 2021 for a small one off fee of £250. For this fee you will:

- 1 Attend live training on 13th October from 9:15am - 4:15pm on Zoom, covering 'Know your context' and 'Working well with your local community', led by Dr Jo Sell and Claire Clinton (Newham's RSHE and RE Advisors). Teachers who have attended this training have said:

Thank you - this has been very helpful - some great background information, and how to address myths.

The training day was informative. I feel more equipped about leading the subject in my school with some ideas to help support staff, pupils and how to encourage parent participation.

Today has given me a lot of clarity and a clear idea of my next steps to managed RSHE in my school.
